Sight and Sound Logo Designer's Competition for 2006

Red Gorilla Clothing launches the 6 week fashion logo designer competition across the United States

Atlanta, GA (March 8, 2006) - Now accepting original logos, print screens, and designs, Red Gorilla Clothing (RGC), the Atlanta-born fashion icon for urban wear, announces the Sight and Sound Logo Designer's Competition for 2006. This 6 week competition, open to logo designers across the U.S, will combine the untapped talent within the fashion world and the Red Gorilla style. Together they shall produce the official tee of the 2nd Annual Sight and Sound II: Underground Logic Fashion Extravaganza, to be premiered at the show late May 2006.

"Leave the stamps at home, and the elementary sketches in the pads, because we're not looking for that," states Mack "Dip" Austin, VP of RGC. "Bring that fire, that hotness that aligns with the Red Gorilla name! Sight and Sound II is going to be bananas!"

Using the label that is commonly recognized through the letters RGC, the words red gorilla, or the face of the silent, but deadly primate, RGC challenges fellow fashionistas world-wide to use it or lose it! Entries can be one color, two colors, or 50...just be original! The most original logo design using any of the RGC emblems aforementioned, shall win a prize package worth over $5,000 including designer credits, a magazine spread with the RGC label, inclusion in the RGC Fall 2006 collection, scenes in the up-and-coming Sight and Sound II: Underground Logic Fashion Show and Concert, web advertisement, and much, much more!

RGC has been featured throughout the Atlanta area with several business, events, and organizations including BAMB Entertainment, DV8 Magazine, Street Magazine, Tiwaworks, BlackBigs, BlackAtlanta.Com, and the Alpha Lines Tradeshow, just to name a few. As 2006 unfolds, it shall expand its market to be seen in surrounding states including Texas, Louisiana, Alabama, South Carolina, and Florida. To enter the Sight and Sound Logo Designer's Competition for 2006, please email or call L. Evette Williams of the Amazon Group PR for registration materials and contest rules and guidelines at evettewilliamspr@yahoo.com and 678-358-1570. All entries must be postmarked by April 22, 2006. Registration fee is required!
